ASCE

WHY JOIN ASCE?

• Free lunch
• Guest speakers
• Opportunities
• Scholarships, leadership, and job
  opportunities
• Information about the Engineering curriculum and careers
• Designing and constructing concrete engineering concepts • Learn application of civil engineering in regional conferences and engineering challenges
• Civil engineering students, faculty, and professionals
• Opportunities to work with other students
Mission of the Chapter

The ASCE student chapter aims to promote a deeper understanding of all aspects of civil engineering. It is expected to enrich the student experience and encourage and foster interaction among students. The chapter provides a deeper understanding of civil engineering as well as the community. University as well as the community.

Relevant Events

- Engineering Expo
- Open House
- Freshman Orientation
- College of Engineering Evens
- Ala Moana Beach Cleanup
- Tennis Tournament
- Downtown Honolulu Street Sign Stencil in
- Ronald McNichols House Visit
- The Night Charity Walk
- Lorrakima Foundation's Light Night
- Job Shadowing Program
- Sports Night
- MDA Telethon
- Conference
- SouthWest Regional

Over all in the 2002 Pacific Competition and placed 7th. The ASCE Student Chapter annually

2002 Student Officers

President: Winty Ota
V.P. Finance: Elsa Au
V.P. Of Student Activities: Pia Venser
- Treasurer: Elliot Tangruish
- C. Secretary: Ernie Almada
- R. Secretary: Jason Seidman

Contact Information:

E-Mail: ascet@hawaii.edu
Phone: 956-5808
Office: Holmes Hall 143B

Website:

www.eng.hawaii.edu/ascet